About the exhibition

Imagine art as a box of chocolates, some highly coloured and decorated, some plain and elegant, some are your favourites, others provoke new experiences and sensations.

Gallery4Art will present a spacious barn carefully filled with art to engage and intrigue the visitor. The artists work will tell a story, adding a fresh dimension to both new work and old favourites. There will be a range of work to suit all budgets from small prints to wall size artworks, delicate ceramics to larger sculptures in the garden.

Plus, the Romantic Poets Corner - Art and words inspired by the works of the Romantic Poets William Wordsworth, Dorothy Wordsworth and Samuel Taylor Coleridge while they roamed the Quantock Hills and North Exmoor.

The Grange Restaurant will be serving coffee, lunch and afternoon tea.

'Christabel-Released'

An Evening Performance

Neo-Romantic declamatory poet Ralph Hoyte ('it's all in the voice!') brings 'closure' to the limbo'd cast of Samuel Taylor Coleridge's unfinished Gothic ballad, CHRISTABEL, in a marathon, evening-long performance. Will Christabel 'do an Ophelia'? Why is Geraldine a bi-interested shape-shifting green snake demoness? Come along and find out!

Bring a picnic basket or buy there. Goths not supplied.

See website for dates and prices.

Tickets available from Binham Grange or contact Gallery4Art.
