The exhibition and parking are free

In February Kilver Court will host an exciting exhibition of work by a group of professional artists from across the county. Come along and meet the artists who will also be giving demonstrations of their work during the exhibition.

Artwork on display will include:

- Paintings and prints by Jim Munnion, Pennie Elfick and Angie Rooke
- Sculpture by Melanie Deegan and Chris Webb
- Jewellery by Penny Price
- Ceramic work by Lucy Brown
- Photography by Andrew Hobbs
- Drawings by Rebecca Birtwhistle

Visitors can also enjoy morning coffee, lunch and afternoon tea at the Harlequin Organic Café, take some time to walk around the dramatic gardens of Kilver Court and visit the Sharpham Park Shop - renowned for selling the very best of local and seasonal organic food and health products.

During half term week there will be a 'hands on' opportunity for any children visiting to produce their own animal pictures based on work by the artists - materials will be provided.
